

Yn Eden, cofiaf hynny byth

William Williams, cyf. C. Dean

♩ = 90

Yn E - den, cof - iaf hy - nny byth, ben - di - thion coll - ais
In E - den, this my me - mo ry, the count - less bless - ings rif y gwllith; syr-thiodd fy ngo - ron wiw. Ond bu - ddu go - liaeth lost to me; My shi - ning crown - was gone. But Cal - vary's migh - ty

Cal - fa - ri en - ill - odd fwy yn ôl i mi: mi ga - naf vic - to - ry more than re - stored them all to me: This is - my tra bwyf byw, Mi ga - naf tra bwyf byw.

end - less song, This is - my end - less song!

2

Fydd, dacw'r fan a dacw'r pren yr hoeliwyd arno D'wysog nen
yn wirion yn fy lle;
y ddraig a 'sigwyd gan yr Un,
cans clwyfwyd dau, concwerodd un,
a lesu oedd efe,
a lesu oedd efe.

3

Behold the place; behold the Tree
where Heaven's Prince was nailed for me;
Taking my place of shame.
The dragon fell beneath the fight, Though two made war, one rose in might
and Jesus is His name!
and Jesus is His name!